The Complete Poems of San Juan de la Cruz is a collection of the works of the 16th-century Spanish poet and mystic, San Juan de la Cruz. The poems are characterized by their intense spirituality, their exploration of the themes of love, longing, and union with God, and their use of vivid imagery and symbolism.

San Juan de la Cruz was born in Fontiveros, Spain, in 1542. He entered the Carmelite Order in 1563 and was ordained a priest in 1567. He spent the rest of his life in various Carmelite monasteries in Spain, where he wrote his poems and other works of spiritual literature.

San Juan de la Cruz's poems are considered to be among the greatest works of Spanish literature. They are characterized by their intense spirituality, their exploration of the themes of love, longing, and union with God, and their use of vivid imagery and symbolism.

One of the most famous poems in The Complete Poems of San Juan de la Cruz is "The Dark Night of the Soul." The poem describes the journey of the soul through the dark night of faith, a period of spiritual dryness and desolation. The soul longs for union with God, but feels abandoned and alone. However, the soul eventually emerges from the dark night, filled with a new understanding of God's love.

Another famous poem in The Complete Poems of San Juan de la Cruz is "The Spiritual Canticle." The poem is a dialogue between the soul and Christ. The soul longs for union with Christ, and Christ responds with words of love and comfort.
